Learners from David Green English Language Institute Achieve Top Results in Cyprus in ‘Outstanding Cambridge Learner Awards’ Ceremony.

A learner from David Green English Language Institute has received a prestigious award from Cambridge International Examinations to acknowledge his outstanding performance in the June 2012 Cambridge examination series.

The ‘Top in Cyprus’ award recognises the success of learners who have achieved the highest standard mark in the country for a single subject. Cambridge places learners at the centre of their international education programmes and qualifications which are inspired by the best in educational thinking.

The following student at David Green English Language Institute received the Cambridge award:

Alexander Ratislav Belcik, (Centre number: Cy 004; Candidate number:1295)

‘Top in Cyprus’ for Cambridge IGCSE in English as a Second Language (count-in-oral).

This is a university-entrance standard qualification.

The Principal of David Green English Language Institute said that the awards recognised the talent, dedication and commitment of both learners and staff. He said: “It is with a particular sense of gratification for our senior staff: David Green, Brenda Christodoulou and others to see a student awarded nationally.

Top performing learners will receive their Cambridge Top in Cyprus award at a school ceremony on 1 March 2013.

Ann Gibson, Cambridge’s Regional Manager, Europe said: ‘It is extremely rewarding to congratulate Cambridge learners and teachers at David Green English Language Institute who have worked so hard to achieve tremendous success in Cambridge examinations. The results are a reflection of the enormous talent in Cyprus, not only amongst learners but also within the teaching profession. Learners from David Green English Language Institute have a bright future ahead of them, and I wish them every success in their future.’

David Green English Language Institute was established in Limassol in 1987. It acts as an associated centre of the British Council for Cambridge examinations and has been entering students for the suite of English examinations for more than a decade now. We are very proud of our long record of success in these examinations. The Principal, David Green has also worked as a Cambridge IGCSE Oral Examiner.

We provide courses in the Cambridge IELTS language examination and have some outstanding results there too. We have been running the Cambridge Business English Course (BEC) for adults for a number of years now. Another new course which we hope to start in 2013-14 is called: 'English for the Oil and Gas Industry'.

We look forward to running this exciting new course with a sense of anticipation.
